

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

Inline Connection Corporation,

Plaintiff,

v.

Verizon Internet Services, Inc., et al.,

Defendants.

Civil Action No. 05-866 (JJF)

MOTION TO ENFORCE COURT'S PRIOR DISCOVERY ORDER (D.I. 97)

Pursuant to Rule 37, Fed. R. Civ. P., Local Rule 37.1, Paragraph 4 of this Court's form Rule 16 Scheduling Order and the Court's April 24, 2006 Memorandum Order (D.I. 97) granting Defendants' Motion To Compel Discovery Regarding Threshold Jurisdictional "Ownership" Issue, the Verizon defendants<sup>1</sup> respectfully move that the Court establish a specific time schedule for plaintiff Inline Connection Corporation ("Inline") to comply with the Court's April 24 Memorandum Order. In support of this motion, Defendants show as follows:

1. On March 28, 2006, the Verizon defendants filed their Motion To Compel Discovery Regarding Threshold Jurisdictional "Ownership" Issue (D.I. 88), requesting an order directing Inline "to provide full and complete answers to Interrogatory Nos. 8 and 13, and production of all documents responsive to Document Request Nos. 36, 37, 46 and 57-59."

2. On April 24, the Court issued its Memorandum Order (D.I. 97), granting Defendants' motion and ordering Plaintiff "to respond to discovery requests relevant to the ownership defense.” As the Court’s Order recognized, ownership is a threshold issue that affects both Inline’s standing and jurisdiction, and as such falls within Defendants’ unenforceability defenses.

3. On April 25, Defendants’ counsel sent an email to Inline’s counsel concerning the ownership discovery (Exhibit 1). The email requested immediate production of various Inline, BBTI and Pie Squared ownership-related documents that had previously been produced to AOL and Earthlink in the co-pending AOL case approximately two months ago. As the email pointed out, these documents should be immediately available from the files of Ms. Van Over, who is simultaneously counsel of record for Inline in both the present action and in the AOL case. Defendants further requested that Inline complete its response to the Memorandum Order regarding “ownership” discovery by May 4.

4. On April 26, Inline’s counsel responded by email (Exhibit 2). Inline declined to provide immediate production of the ownership documents previously produced in the AOL case. Inline stated that it would make a selective production of certain unspecified “agreements” relating to the ownership issue sometime next week. Finally, Inline indicated that it would withhold indefinitely any further responses to the Court-ordered ownership discovery until Inline takes its own comprehensive discovery from Defendants regarding invalidity and unenforceability.<sup>2</sup>

ARGUMENT

Defendants respectfully request that the Court set a firm time schedule for Inline to comply fully with the Court’s previous “ownership” discovery order (D.I. 97). Ownership is a threshold standing/jurisdictional issue that must be addressed at the outset.

<sup>2</sup> The email references an indefinite future “timeframe that we discuss and agree to, as discussed in my letter to you today.” The referenced letter is attached as Exhibit 3 (dated April 18, but actually sent on April 26), while Defendants’ April 27 response is attached as Exhibit 4.

Inline, however, refuses to provide prompt production of ownership-related documents which were previously produced months ago in the AOL case and are therefore immediately available. Instead, Inline will agree only to provide certain unspecified and unilaterally selected “agreements” by the end of next week. As for the answers to Interrogatory Nos. 8 and 13, as well as all other documents responsive to Document Request Nos. 36, 37, 46 and 57-59, Inline is holding that discovery “hostage” until it obtains open-ended discovery from Defendants on other unrelated invalidity/unenforceability issues.

The Court should reject Inline’s attempts to impose indefinite delay and unilateral conditions on full compliance with this Court’s April 24 Memorandum Order (D.I. 97). The Court should direct Inline to comply promptly according to the following specific time schedule:

- A. Inline shall produce to Defendants all Inline/BBTI/Pie Squared ownership-related documents previously produced in the AOL case within 24 hours.
- B. Inline shall produce to Defendants all Inline/BBTI/Pie Squared ownership-related agreements not previously produced in the AOL case on or before May 5, 2006.
- C. Inline shall provide full and complete answers to Interrogatory Nos. 8 and 13, as well as all other documents responsive to Document Request Nos. 36, 37, 46 and 57-59, on or before May 15, 2006.

Respectfully submitted,
